

Two-day job fair in Bangalore on October 18 and October 19, 2008

A two day job fair was organized by the Karnataka government Department of Employment and Training on Saturday 18th and Sunday 19th October, 2008 at Koramangala indoor stadium. The job fair was swarmed by close to 20000 candidates seeking jobs. The job fair was inaugurated by Karnataka Chief Minister B S Yeddyurappa.

Career Launcher made its presence felt under its Skill School banner and looking for people for its Hindustan Unilever Project. 194 candidates registered their names at CL's stall for HUL job.

Going by the job requirements, response and companies vying and fighting for skilled manpower CL can play a big role in this field.

Few glimpses of the job fair:

CM inaugurating the Job Fair

CM's addressing the crowd

Participant's stall and candidates taking assessment

CL's stall getting proper representation!

